1. In line with the commitment of the Department of Education, through the Schools Division of Iriga City, to continuously elevate the quality of implementation of the Alternative Learning System and ensure efficient program monitoring for out-of-school youth and adult learners, this Office announces the conduct of the Regular Bi-Monthly Conference of the Alternative Learning System (ALS).

2. The regular conference aims to achieve the following objectives:

- a. Monitor and report division-wide enrollment status, attendance, and targeted key performance indicators;
- b. Address and resolve localized issues, gaps, and concerns encountered in the community learning centers;
- c. Share best practices, contextualized learning materials, and innovative teaching strategies; and
- d. Plan and align upcoming Alternative Learning System activities and programs with division, regional, and national directives.

3. To achieve these objectives, the regular conference shall be held every two months following the indicative dates starting July 2026:

Month	Indicative Date
July	July 24, 2026 (4:00-5:30 P.M.)
September	September 25, 2026 (4:00-5:30 P.M.)
November	November 27, 2026 (4:00-5:30 P.M.)
January	January 29, 2027 (4:00-5:30 P.M.)
March	March 19, 2027 (4:00-5:30 P.M.)
