REGIONAL GENDER AND DEVELOPMENT (GAD) SUMMIT 2026

To : Schools Division Superintendents
Regional and Division Gender and Development Focal Persons
School Heads of Public Elementary and Secondary Schools
All Others Concerned

1. The Department of Education Regional Office V, through the Regional Gender and Development (GAD) Focal Point System, shall conduct the GAD Regional Summit 2026 with the theme "Answering the Call: Directing GAD Initiatives with Impact" on November 11–12, 2026. The activity shall be hosted by the Schools Division Office of Sorsogon Province. The specific venue shall be announced through a separate communication.

2. The Summit supports the Department's continuing commitment to gender-responsive basic education. DepEd Order No. 32, s. 2017, or the Gender-Responsive Basic Education Policy, commits DepEd to integrate gender equality, gender equity, gender sensitivity, non-discrimination, and human rights in the provision and governance of basic education.

3. The activity aims to strengthen the capacity and commitment of education leaders, GAD focal persons, and program implementers to direct GAD initiatives toward responsive, evidence-informed, inclusive, and results-oriented actions that address gender issues and contribute to meaningful and sustainable outcomes in the education sector.

4. Specifically, the Summit aims to:

- deepen participants' understanding of emerging gender issues, GAD priorities, and their implications for education policies, programs, projects, and activities;
- strengthen the application of gender-responsive approaches in planning, implementation, monitoring, and evaluation;
- showcase effective GAD practices, innovations, and initiatives with demonstrated or promising results;
- enhance collaboration and knowledge-sharing among GAD focal persons, education leaders, program implementers, and stakeholders;

- promote results-based GAD programming that links identified gender issues with appropriate interventions, measurable outputs, and intended outcomes; and
- generate concrete commitments and priority actions that may be translated into more responsive and impactful GAD initiatives.

5. Expected outputs of the Summit include enhanced participant competencies; documented good practices and promising GAD initiatives; identified priority gender issues and strategic responses; strengthened collaboration mechanisms; office-level GAD action commitments; and consolidated insights and recommendations to guide succeeding GAD programs, projects, and activities.

6. Participants shall include identified Regional Office and Schools Division Office personnel, GAD Focal Point System members, and other concerned personnel. The final list and number of participants shall be provided in an enclosure or separate communication.

7. The Schools Division Office of Sorsogon Province, as host, shall coordinate with the Regional Office GAD Focal Point System on local arrangements and activity requirements. The detailed program of activities, participant allocations, and other administrative arrangements shall be issued separately or attached as enclosures upon finalization.

8. Allowable expenses relative to the conduct of the activity shall be charged against the appropriate authorized funds, subject to availability of funds and existing government budgeting, accounting, procurement, and auditing rules and regulations. Specific fund sources and expense arrangements shall be indicated in the approved activity documents.

9. For information and appropriate action.
